OPEL COMBO AND WÜRTH MOBILE WORKSHOP CONVERSIONS

INDIVIDUAL OUTFITTING

Where commercial vehicles are concerned, every branch of industry and commerce has differing needs. Meeting these needs is a specialist operation, demanding an in-depth understanding of each individual requirement. That's why at Würth we have specialist advisors, many of whom are skilled in the various branches of industry and commerce that use our vehicles.

UNCOMPROMISING QUALITY

In order to provide our customers with the very best in precision and individual engineering, our ideal is to plan and install our conversions ourselves. That way we can react immediately to the demands of our customers, bringing our skill to meet their exact needs.

FULLY CONSIDERED CONVERSIONS

We offer two basic product lines. One is a custom system from aluminium, steel and composites, the other a robust steel modular system. Both offer outstanding space and storage organization and efficiency. Whichever you choose, the experience and expertise of our skilled sales and workforce ensures that you get the perfect individually fitted product for your needs.

THE BEST SERVICE

Wherever you are located, our unique construction service, through certified installation partners, is nearby. In addition, our highly skilled service staff are always available, together with our widespread agency network.
